(An Autonomous Society Promoted by Ministry of Agriculture & Farmers Welfare)

NCCT

National Council For Cooperative Training

BACKGROUND

In 1953, the Government of India jointly with the Reserve Bank of India constituted a Central Committee for Cooperative Training for formulating plans and for organizing and directing arrangements in regard to the training of personnel employed or to be employed the cooperative departments and institutions in the country.

Subsequently, in 1962, the Government of India approved the constitution of the Committee for Cooperative Training and the work relating to Cooperative Training was entrusted to the National Cooperative Union of India.

In June 1973, the Government of India Constituted an Expert Group on Cooperative Education, Training and Research under the Chairmanship of noted agricultural scientist Dr. M.S. Swaminathan. The recommendations of the Expert Group were examined by Abidin Committee and consequently the following major changes were made:

- Committee for Cooperative Training was renamed as "National Council for Cooperative Training" (NCCT).
- NCCT was reconstituted with representations from national and state level cooperative federations, Federations, Government of India, RBI, NCDC and Register of Cooperative federations, Government of India, RBI, NCDC and Registrar of Cooperative Societies (RCS).

The present structure of NCCT was established in July 1976 with the concurrence of the Government of India, Ministry of Agriculture under the byelaws 16A of NCUI. It is fully financed by the Ministry of Agriculture, Department of Agriculture and Cooperation, Government of India. It is a national level body responsible for organizing programmes for Human Resource Development in cooperatives and allied sectors.

Now, NCCT is a Registered Society under Societies Registration Act, 1860 promoted by Ministry of Agriculture & Farmers Welfare, Department of Agriculture, Cooperation & Farmers Welfare.
